Top Tapestry Segments:

Midland Crowd

Approximately 11.9 million people represent Midland Crowd, Community Tapestry's largest market. The median age of 37 is similar to the US Median. Most households are composed of married-couple families, half with children and half without. The median household income is $50,462. Housing developments are generally in rural areas throughout the United States (more village or town than farm), mainly in the South. Home ownership is at 83 percent. Two-thirds of households are single-family structures; 28 percent are mobile homes. This is a somewhat conservative market politically. These do-it-yourselfers take pride in their homes, lawns, and vehicles. Hunting, fishing, and woodworking are favorite pursuits. Pet ownership, especially birds or dogs, is common. Many households have a satellite dish, and TV viewing includes various news programs as well as shows on CMT and Outdoor Life Network.

Salt of the Earth

A rural or small-town lifestyle best describes the Salt of the Earth market. The median age is 41.4 years. Labor force participation is higher than the U.S. level, and unemployment is lower. Above-average numbers of employed residents work in the manufacturing, construction, mining, and agricultural industries. The median household income is $50,913. Households are dominated by married-couple families who live in single-family dwellings, with homeownership at 85 percent. Twenty-eight percent of the households own three or more vehicles. Most homes own a truck; many own a motorcycle. Residents are settled, hardworking, and self-reliant, taking on small home projects as well as vehicle maintenance. Families often own two or more pets, usually dogs or cats. Residents enjoy fishing, hunting, target shooting, attending country music concerts and auto races, and flying kites.

Green Acres

A 'little bit country', Green Acres residents live in pastoral settings of developing suburban fringe areas, mainly in the Midwest and South. The median age is 40.7 years. Married couples with and without children comprise most of the households, which are primarily in single-family dwellings. This upscale market has a median household income of $65,074 and a median home value of $197,519. These do-it-yourselfers maintain and remodel their homes, painting, installing carpet, or adding a deck, and own all the necessary tools to accomplish these tasks. They also take care of their lawn and gardens, again, with the right tools. Vehicles of choice are motorcycles and full-sized pickup trucks. For exercise, residents ride their bikes and go water skiing, canoeing, and kayaking. Other activities include bird-watching, power boating, target shooting, hunting, and attending auto races.

In Style

In Style residents live in affluent neighborhoods of metropolitan areas. More suburban than urban, they nevertheless embrace an urban lifestyle. Townhome ownership is more than double that of the national level; however, more than half of the households are traditional single-family homes. Labor force participation is high, and professional couples predominate. The median household income is $72,326. Nearly one-third of these households include children. The median age is 40.3 years. In Style residents are computer savvy; they use the Internet daily to research information, track investments, or shop. They own a diverse investment portfolio, contribute to retirement savings plans, and hold long-term care and life insurance policies. They enjoy going to the beach, snorkeling, playing golf, casino gambling, and domestic travel.

Aspiring Young Families

Aspiring Young Families neighborhoods are located in large, growing metropolitan areas in the South and West, with the highest concentrations in California, Florida, and Texas. Mainly composed of young, married-couple families or single parents with children, the median age for this segment is 30.6 years. Nearly half of the households are owner-occupied, single-family dwellings or townhomes, and over half are occupied by renters, many living in newer, multiunit buildings. Residents spend much of their discretionary income on baby and children's products and toys as well as home furnishings. Recent electronic purchases include cameras and video game systems. Leisure activities include dining out, dancing, going to the movies, attending professional football games, fishing, weight lifting, and playing basketball. Typically, vacations would include visits to theme parks. Internet usage mainly involves chat room visits.

Southern Satellites

Southern Satellites neighborhoods are rural settlements found primarily in the South, with employment chiefly in the manufacturing and service industries. Married-couple families dominate this market. The median age is 37.7 years, and the median household income is $39,758. Most housing is newer, single-family dwellings or mobile homes with a median value of $90,801, occupied by owners. Residents enjoy country living. They listen to gospel and country music on the radio and attend country music concerts. They participate in fishing, hunting, and auto racing. Favorite TV stations are CMT and Outdoor Life Network. Satellite dishes are popular in these rural locations. Households own older, domestic vehicles, particularly trucks and two-door sedans. Residents invest time in vegetable gardening, and households are likely to own riding mowers, garden tractors, and tillers.

Midlife Junction

Midlife Junction communities are found in suburbs across the country. Residents are phasing out of their child-rearing years. Approximately half of the households are composed of married-couple families; 31 percent are singles who live alone. The median age is 41.2 years; the median household income is $49,031. One-third of the households receive Social Security benefits. Nearly two-thirds of the households are single-family structures; most of the remaining dwellings are apartments in multiunit buildings. These residents live quiet, settled lives. They spend their money prudently and do not succumb to fads. They prefer to shop by mail or phone from catalogs such as J.C. Penney, L.L. Bean, and Lands' End. They enjoy yoga, attending country music concerts and auto races, refinishing furniture, and reading romance novels.

Inner City Tenants

Inner City Tenants neighborhoods are a microcosm of urban diversity, located primarily in the South and West. This multicultural market is young, with a median age of 27.9 years. Households are a mix of singles and families. Most residents rent economical apartments in mid- or high-rise buildings. Recent household purchases by this market include video game systems, baby food, baby products, and furniture. Internet access at home is not typical; those who have no access at home surf the Internet at school or at the library. Playing games and visiting chat rooms are typical online activities. Residents frequently eat at fast-food restaurants. They enjoy going to the movies; attending football and basketball games; water skiing; and playing football, basketball, and soccer. Some enjoy the nightlife, visiting bars and nightclubs to go dancing.

College Towns

Education is the key focus for College Towns residents. College and graduate school enrollment is 41 percent. The median age for this market is 24.4 years, with a high concentration of 18–24-year-olds. One out of eight residents lives in a dorm on campus. Students in off-campus housing rent low-income apartments. Twenty-nine percent of the households are occupied by owners, who are typically town residents living in single-family dwellings. The median home value is $148,030. Convenience is the primary consideration for food purchases; residents frequently eat out, order in, or eat easy-to-prepare food. Many own a laptop computer. In their leisure time, they jog, go horseback riding, practice yoga, play tennis, rent videos, play chess or pool, attend concerts, attend college football or basketball games, and go to bars. They listen to classical music and public radio programs.

Rooted Rural

Rooted Rural neighborhoods are located in rural areas throughout the country; however, more than three-fifths of the households are located in the South. Households are dominated by married-couple families. One-third of the households receive Social Security benefits. The median age is 42.2 years. Housing is predominantly single-family dwellings, with a strong presence of mobile homes and some seasonal housing. The median home value is $101,198. Stable and settled, residents tend to move infrequently. They are do-it-yourselfers, constantly working on their homes, gardens, and vehicles. Many families have pets. Residents enjoy hunting, fishing, target shooting, boating, attending country music concerts, and listening to country music on the radio. Many households have a satellite dish; favorite stations include Outdoor Life Network and CMT.
